

Proposed structure

Notes

* Voting members of the Board

Not all functions will be delivered by NHS London directly, options for outsourcing are being considered

The form of the Provider Development role remains under review with options such as the establishment of an agency being appraised

Connecting for Health will report directly to the Chief Executive but will not be an Executive Director appointment